

HIGHLAND RECORDER.

Terms, $1.00 a Year in Advance.

Issued every Friday evening by
H. B. WOOD,
EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

Entered at the Monterey postoffice as second class matter.

Monterey, Va., Friday, March 1, 1907

Parties coming in from Alleghany assert that there is a strong probability that Flint, Erving & Stoner, who have large timber interests on the Virginia side of the mountain, will decide to make such changes in their lumber road as will enable them to carry freight and passengers to the turnpike at Charley Hull's, and, at that point, erect a depot, ware-room and, possibly, a company store.

The report is not an idle rumor, but is being seriously considered by the firm mentioned, their willingness or purpose to do so having been expressed, contingent, somewhat, upon the attitude of the people concerned and the inducements held out.

It is to be hoped that the "inducements" do not include a subscription, or monetary consideration, because Highland, like the proverbial burnt child, dreads such suggestions, but men possessing the business insight and perception of these gentlemen can readily see that such facilities would guarantee the entire traffic of a big territory, granting fairness and justice in the matter of rates. As to the extent of this traffic for any given time, we could not even approximate, but certain it is it would be a handsome supplement to a road designed, primarily, for the marketing of timber.

A shipping point and commodious ware-room at Laurel Fork would turn the tide of trade as far east as Bullpasture mountain and from the Bath line to Franklin.

For the Franklin merchants it would mean a distance of something like 35 miles, with but one mountain and at least 30 miles down grade for the loaded wagons. With the Jack mountain road completed, Doe Hill would be brought within 22 miles, giving Laurel Fork precedence over Stokesville.

To the people of the Monterey and Crabbottom valleys the advantages are obvious, inasmuch that the promoters of the enterprise could rest assured of a monopoly of the trade when once prepared to handle it.

We have not heard, and have no idea, as to the cost of making this lumber road "safe and sane," but those in a position to know claim that the only material change that would be required is on that section of road in the Collins neighborhood, known as "the grade."

If the gentlemen are actually figuring on the enterprise, we believe the people of the various sections alluded to above would take pleasure, and go to some trouble, to furnish estimates of the exports and imports that would help them in arriving at a safe conclusion.

The question of running the line to the 'pike has already been determined, the survey and location having been made, the only point to be settled, as we are informed, is that of making it capable of carrying passengers and freight.

It is a matter of great concern to the county, as we view it, and we will anxiously await developments.

"I bought a 50c bottle of KODOL and the benefit I received, all the gold in Georgia could not buy. In 3 months I was well and hearty. May you live long and prosper."—C. N. Cornell, Roding, Ga., 1905. Kodol for Dyspepsia is sold by K. TRIMBLE.

Mr. Roosevelt may make the dirt fly, but Kaiser Wilhelm proposes to make the Germans fly.

NO CASE ON RECORD.

There is no case on record of a cough or cold resulting in pneumonia or consumption after Foley's Honey and Tar had been taken, as it will stop your cough and break up your cold quickly. Refuse any but the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar in a yellow package. Contains no opiates and is safe and sure. K. TRIMBLE.

NOTICE!

My account books, containing all my blacksmith accounts, prior to the beginning of the partnership between Ed. Beverage and me, are now in the hands of O. Wilson for settlement and payment.

Legal means will be resorted to to collect all claims due me, not settled by payment, bond or note by the first day of March, 1907. PAUL BROWN.

Congressman Flood's Road Bill

A dispatch from Washington says: Representative Hal D. Flood, of Virginia, has introduced a most unique bill in the house. His plan is to have the secretary of the treasury lay aside $25,000,000 out of the surplus on hand at the end of each fiscal year. This amount would be apportioned out among all the states to be used for road improvements. The bill will in all probability pass, as it has elicited a good deal of favorable comment.

The bill is in full as follows: "That it shall be the duty of the secretary of the treasury at the end of each fiscal year to take an account of all the funds in the treasury of the United States, and after deducting from said sum the amount required by law to be kept in said treasury, the remainder, if any, shall be declared a surplus."

"That it shall be the duty of the secretary of the treasury to immediately provide for the distribution of said surplus not exceeding twenty-five million dollars annually during the continuance of this law on a per capita basis of the states, territories and the district of Columbia, to be computed from the last general census taken by the national authorities, and shall prorate the same accordingly for the postal roads in said states, territories and District of Columbia, under such rules and regulations as the territories and District of Columbia may provide, and said secretary shall immediately notify the governors of said states and territories and the commissioners of the District of Columbia the amounts due each, and that the sums will be paid over to such person or persons as may be duly authorized by said states, territories, and the District of Columbia to receive and receipt for the same. "That it shall be the duty of the governors of the several states and territories and the commissioners of the District of Columbia to make a full and complete report to the secretary of the treasury on the 15th day of November of each year what legislation, rules and regulations have been adopted for the expenditure of said funds upon the postal roads, the manner in which the same has been spent, and the results accomplished. And it shall be the duty of the said secretary to submit said reports to congress on the first day of each regular session."

Pocahontas Items.

(MESSENGER)
Henry Flenner died at his home at Bartow Thursday night, Feb. 21, of heart failure, the result of a severe attack of mumps. He was sick about three weeks. He was apparently recovering nicely until yesterday afternoon, and his death came as a shock to his friends.

He came here 30 years ago from Pennsylvania and worked in the woods until 15 years ago, as contractor for the St. Lawrence Co. He bought a farm at Bartow and has since made that his home. 18 years ago he married Miss Alice Yeager, a daughter of the late Peter D. Yeager. She died three years ago, leaving a son five or six years old. Besides this son, Mr. Flenner is survived by a brother and a sister, both of whom live in this county. He was about 60 years of age. His age is uncertain as he would never tell it.

Sheriff Ed. Arbogast, Highland county, Va., is visiting his brother Arthur here this week.

"Ras" Williams, who has been visiting in Bridgewater, Va., has returned to his home here.

Fred Trimble, until recently employed by C. J. Richardson & Co., at Durbin, has accepted a position with the Star Bakery here.

Miss Nora Wilson has resigned her position as head nurse at the Marlinton hospital and is now at her home in Highland county.

(TIMES.)

We received a card from E. M. Arbogast, who is now in Florida, stating that he had been fishing and catching them some. A party of four got 150 lbs. in half a day. Another party in a small boat with hook and line caught a man-eating shark. He states this is only a small one, being but 12 feet long. This is plenty big enough for us, however. If he is good as his word, we hope to receive in a few days a photograph of this monster, with our pretty little friend, Miss Virginia Arbogast, standing beside it.

The sawmill of J. B. Corbett, manufacturing the Smith timber on the White place near Driscoll, burned last Wednesday night, entailing a loss of about $2,000. It is not known how the fire originated, and was well under way before discovered. This mill was one of the best and largest portable mills in the county and was practically new. It was completely fitted up with edger, cut-off saws and other equipment. No timber was lost, as the lumber piles were quite a distance from the mill. This loss will be especially hard upon the owner, as there was no insurance, and the proprietor had but what he had made by the hardest kind of labor, and had invested about all in this plant.

THIS IS WORTH REMEMBERING.

Whenever you have a cough or cold, just remember that Foley's Honey and Tar will cure it. Do not risk your health by taking any but the genuine. It is in a yellow package. K. H. TRIMBLE.

PAUL BROWN.

Fugitive Out-witted

Asa George, who stabbed a negro at Hot Springs last week, notice of which was made in last issue of this paper, was captured last Thursday at the home of his uncle, Arch George, on Buckley Mountain, by officers Pat Simmons and Paris Yeager. They had been notified by Sheriff Gum, of Bath County, and had gone to Driscoll to meet the posse but arrived too late to intercept George, who took to the mountains and made his way to Taylor George's on Beaver creek, and from thence to the place where he was captured. Thursday in a blinding snow storm the officers made their way through the four miles of woods to Arch George's home, where they supposed the fugitive would seek refuge. They went boldly to the house but could see little sign of the man they were after. George had carried a shot gun, and there was a gun under the bed, but how they were to examine it was a problem. Yeager got up to examine a coon skin which hung on the wall, and in so doing managed to drop his gloves near the gun. Simmons reached down to pick them up, and satisfied himself that the gun under the bed belonged to the man they were after. Inquiring the way to Beaver creek, after they had warned, they started in that direction, but as soon as they were out of sight of the house they turned. They had not watched the house but a few minutes before Arch George had taken his axe and gone for wood, and Asa George came out of the loft through a small hole near the chimney. Going back, they had no trouble making the arrest, as he was taken wholly unawares. George consented to go back without requisition, and was not put in jail. Mr. Yeager left for Bath by way of Covington on Friday.—Times

DeWitt's Carbolyzed Witch Hazel Salve is undoubtedly the best relief for piles. Sold by K. H. TRIMBLE.

An editorial in the Winchester, Ya. Star has the following complimentary allusion to the speech made by Hon. H. D. Flood in Winchester last week, on the occasion of the annual celebration of the fire companies:

The speech of the Hon. Henry D. Flood last night was upon high lines of literary merit. Mr. Flood is rapidly taking his place among the foremost and acknowledged orators of the State.

In many respects Mr. Flood resembles his grandfather, Charles James Faulkner, of West Virginia. He has the same clear vision and the same power of attentive industry. He has also the presence, the vocabulary and the imagination which go to make an orator.

His rhetoric is not substituted for thought, but illuminates thought and has the relevancy of an informed literary taste. Thus his eloquence is the grace full vehicle of facts and ideas and commands attention as much as it merits admiration.

A severe cold, that may develop into pneumonia over night, can be quickly cured by taking Foley's Honey and Tar. It will cure the most obstinate, racking cough and strengthen your lungs. The genuine is in a yellow package. K. H. TRIMBLE.

Virginia: In Vacation: In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Highland County, January 18th, 1907. Geo. E. Swecker & others vs. Upon an amended bill, in chancery.

Trexler Bro's & Co. &c. The object of this amended bill, is to annul or dissolve the partnership known as the Bluegrass Percheron Horse Co., and to ascertain its assets and liabilities and ascertain the liability of Trexler Bro's & Co. and E. W. Armstrong and W. F. Jones to the plaintiffs and to attach the effects of H. P. Reynolds in the hands of one J. H. Yost for the sum of $2800.00 with interest from the first day of January 1906.

And it appearing from affidavit, this day filed, that the defendants, J. F. Trexler, J. L. Trexler and H. P. Reynolds are nonresidents of the state of Virginia; it is ordered that they appear here within fifteen days after due publication hereof and do what is necessary to protect their interest.

E. H. McClintic p. q. Tests:

J. C. Matheny, Clerk.

France and Germany have begun the rivalry for the dominion of the air. Both countries have opened flying schools.

Have you noticed that little 3-000,000 mile pimple on the sun's face.

GIVEN UP TO DIE.

B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over 5 years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections, which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good, and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle, I was completely cured. Why not let it help you? K. H. TRIMBLE.

CARPETS CARPETS CARPETS

Having decided to close out our entire line of Carpets commencing February 15th, we will put on sale:

250 yards 36 in. Ingrain, worth 60 cents, at	42½ cents
250 yards 36 in. Ingrain worth 70 cents at	52½ cents
" " 36 in. Ingrain worth 80 cents at	62½ cents
200 " 27 in. Brussels, worth 85 cents, at	65 cents
" " 27 in. Best Brussels, worth $1. at	75 cents

These goods are all first-class and majority bought last fall direct from the mills and will be sold for less than they can be bought today. If you will need carpets this year it will pay you to buy them now as you may never have another chance to buy clean new goods at these prices.

SHRECKHISE & BEAR

Phone 636

14 E Main St., Staunton, Va

From Illinois

Towanda, Ill.
Feb. 24, 1907

It has been quite a while since we saw any news in our good Highland Recorder from the State of Illinois.

We have had a fine winter with exception of the mud, and haven't had but two inches of snow.

There has been lots of sickness in our neighborhood this winter, but glad to say the sick are much better.

Our protracted meeting at Town Hall Church has closed with good success.

Mr. John Botkin was in town today on business.

Mr. John Barnard shipped two car loads of cattle a few days ago.

Mr. Robert Kusniel and family are expected home soon from Virginia, where they have been visiting friends and relatives in Highland county, near McDowell.

Mrs. Rosy Botkin and son were the guests of Mrs. Frank Barnard last week.

Mr. Ed. Malcom and Floyd Siron made a business trip to Bloomington Saturday.

Mr. J. S. Armstrong and wife were visiting John Botkin Sunday.

A young couple was married in the parlors of the Folsom hotel, Bloomington, at 3:30 p. m., Wednesday: Mr. Samuel T. Simmons and Miss Eva McKeown, both of Lexington, the Rev. E. F. Wright officiating. The groom, who is an industrious young farmer, came here from Doe Hill, Va., four years ago. The bride, who is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McKeown, is a charming and popular young lady. She is prominent in Sunday school work and is the life of the Prairie Hall neighborhood and has a host of friends. Mr. Simmons is to work for Van Armstrong this coming year and will occupy a cottage east of Lexington.

Muddy

KODOL digests what you eat and quickly overcomes indigestion, which is a forerunner of dyspepsia. It is made in strict conformity to the National Pure Food and Drug Law, and is sold on a guarantee relief plan. Sold by K. H. TRIMBLE.

Those Pennsylvania men are so absent-minded. One of them forgot to tell his wife he had left a couple sticks of dynamite in the stove. You can guess the rest.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers scatter the gloom of sick headache and biliousness. Sold by K. H. TRIMBLE.

Simultaneously with the announcement by John D. Rockefeller, Jr., of the proposed gift by his father of $32,000,000 to the general education board, came the notice to consumers all over the country of an advance in the price of oil, which will net the Standard Oil Company about $40,000,000 additional in a single year. John D. Rockefeller will get the greater part of this increased revenue.

Literary Clubs.

Literary clubs are a very harmless form of hero worship. They make just the same excuse for literary people to meet together as whilst or bridge to a less bookish class.—Sphere.

A Boston schoolboy was tall, weak and sickly.

His arms were soft and flabby. He didn't have a strong muscle in his entire body.

The physician who had attended the family for thirty years prescribed Scott's Emulsion.

NOW:

To feel that boy's arm you would think he was apprenticed to a blacksmith.

ALL DRUGGISTS, 50c. AND $1.00.

The Range of Apples.
"Pineapple" and "love apple" (tomato) are instances of the manner in which the apple has been habitually taken as the typical fruit, the name of which is naturally borrowed in naming all sorts of fruits and vegetables that only remotely resemble it. Dr. Murray's dictionary gives an imposing list of them—Jew's apple, devil's apple, kangaroo apple, and so on. A writer of the seventeenth century speaks of "the fruit or apples of palm trees," and a fourteenth century man says that "all manner of apples that ben cloyed in an harte skinne, rynde, other shale, ben callyd Noces" (nuts). In the year 1000, apparently, "earth apples" meant not potatoes, but cucumbers. And even Eve's "apple" is believed to have been a citron.

The Metaphor of the Spider.
Better than most metaphors that have been drawn from the spider's way of life is the delightfully human one of Alphonse Karr's in his "Voyage autour de mon Jardin." The spider, he says, is more truthful than man. When man says, "If my wife does not love me I shall die," he does not die. But when the spider says so he knows he is speaking the truth, for if his wife does not love him she kills him.—London Saturday Review.

Great Expectations.
Mrs. Mark—Gracious! I never saw so many soiled faces in my life. Why don't you use some soap and water? Tommy Tuff—We are waitin' for de angel, mum. Mrs. Mark—What angel? Tommy Tuff—Why, de lady dat come tru here last week and give one of de kids a nickel to wash his face.—Chicago News.

Some people will never learn anything for this reason: Because they understand everything too soon.—Pope.

A Flavor of Antiquity.
In the little town of Munsiedel, in Bavaria, there exists one of the most curious charitable foundations in the world. One of the burghers, Christopher Wanner, died in 1451 and left his fortune for the establishment of a home for aged poor. He attached, however, the condition that every old man who was taken in should wear his beard and the same cut of clothes and cap as he himself used to wear. Consequently, after the lapse of hundreds of years, the ancient pensioners are still to be seen wandering about the streets of Munsiedel in the costumes of the fifteenth century.

His Only Occupation.
"Xee'm, but if I do yoush laundry work, ma'am, I must have de undashstandin' dat my husban' collects de pay."
"But why can't you collect it yourself, Manda?"
"Well, you see, ma'am, I don't want to rob de ol' man of de only job he's evah likely to get."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Truth of It.
Blusters—I dare say I do look mad. I understand Jigley says I'm the worst liar he ever saw. Wiseman—Oh, that's a gross libel! Blusters—Of course it is. Wiseman—Well, I should say. Why, everybody admits you're a pretty good liar.—Catholic Standard and Times.

Literary Clubs.
Literary clubs are a very harmless form of hero worship. They make just the same excuse for literary people to meet together as whilst or bridge to a less bookish class.—Sphere.

Ask for the Genuine

And see that you get what you ask for

The largely increased demand for Sun Cured tobacco, created and sustained by the distinctive quality of the original Reynolds' Sun Cured tobacco, has encouraged other manufacturers to place on the market imitation brands and tags which are made to look so near like the genuine Reynolds' Sun Cured that unsuspecting chewers and dealers receive the imitations under the belief that they are getting the genuine Reynolds' Sun Cured tobacco.

Look close and see that the letters on the tag spell R-e-y-n-o-l-d-s' Sun Cured, and you cannot be deceived in getting what you ask for and want,—the best value for your money that can be produced from the genuine Sun Cured tobacco, grown where the best sun-cured tobacco grows.

ASK FOR "REYNOLDS"

and see that you get the original and genuine Sun Cured tobacco.

It's like you formerly got, before Reynolds' Sun Cured was offered to the trade, costing from 60c to $1.00 per pound, and is sold at 50c per pound in 5c cuts, strictly 10 and 15 cent plugs.

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO., Winston-Salem, N. C.

University of Virginia

EDWIN A. ALDERMAN, President

LETTERS, SCIENCE, LAW MEDICINE, ENGINEERING.

Tuition in Academic Department

FREE TO VIRGINIANS

Entrance examinations have been instituted. Present enrollment largest in history of the institution. Next session begins Sept. 14th. Send for Catalogue.

Howard Winston, Secretary, Charlottesville, Va.

Charlotteville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

Charlottesville, Va.

BOYS WANTED

In Every Town in the South to act as Agent for AMERICA'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

THE WASHINGTON HERALD

Sound Conservative Educational Always Reliable

Any school boy can, with a little hustling every day find in our work pleasant and profitable employment. To such a boy will send samples and instructions. Write quickly before it is too late. Address

MANAGER CIRCULATION,

The Washington Herald Co.,

Washington, D. C.

A Postal Card will Bring a Sample Copy of the Herald by Return Mail

Persons desiring to subscribe for this great newspaper can do so at the Highland Recorder office, Monterey, at the following rates:

The Washington Herald by Mail

CASH IN ADVANCE

DAILY AND SUNDAY

Daily and Sunday 1 year $4.20

Daily and Sunday, 6 mos. 2.10

Daily and Sunday 3 months 1.05

Daily and Sunday 1 month .35

Herald, Sunday only, one year by Mail, $1.50

For a few weeks we will accept subscriptions to the Sunday edition of The Washington Herald at $1.00 a year, payable in advance.

Address your order to either of the following:

HIGHLAND RECORDER, WASHINGTON HERALD CO.

Monterey, Va. Washington, D. C.

There is more reading in the Herald on Sunday than a 25-cent magazine, and its every feature appeals to the family circle.